Baseline firing versus cue modulation

Odd-trial baseline | even-trial modulation | descriptive sign-constrained fits

One point = one neuron. Strips show cue-response composition; fitted curves are descriptive within one recording.

Axes use symmetric-log spacing with common limits covering every neuron; the plotted quantities retain their Hz units.